

traffic and weather 24/7 compared to what regular radio has to offer is nothing at all. I have had satellite radio for 2.5 years and will never go back to bad reception, to many individuals standing on their soap boxes and traffic and weather when they want. Technology is a good thing, stop letting these radio conglomerates dictate to the people who want our XM radio.